WE BELIEVE THAT:

- Children and young people should never experience abuse of any kind.
- We have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people, to keep them safe and to practise in a way that protects them

- All children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse.
- Working in partnership with children, young people and their parents is essential in promoting young people's welfare and in helping young people to be responsible in their dance activities
- We have a responsibility to help keep children and young people safe online, whether or not they are using Reading School Of Dance's network and devices.
- We have a duty to ensure that all children, young people and adults involved in our organisation and activities are protected from potential harm online

WE WILL SEEK TO KEEP CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE SAFE BY:

- Valuing, listening to and respecting them.
- Adopting child protection and safeguarding good practice through this policy and our behaviours
- Providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and coaching
- Recruiting and selecting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- Recording, storing and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation
- Sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children and their families via This document and one-to-one discussions.
- Using our professional approach and our records to manage any allegations against staff and volunteers appropriately, seeking independent advice and guidance where required
- Creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise.
- Ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying good health and safety measures in line with our risk assessment
- Building a safeguarding culture where staff and volunteers, children, young people and their families, treat each other with respect and are comfortable about sharing concerns
- Ensuring personal information about the adults and children who are involved in our dance activities is held securely and shared only as appropriate.
- Ensuring that images of children, young people and families are used only after their written permission has been obtained, and only for the purpose for which consent has been given.
- Providing supervision, support and training for staff and volunteers about online safety.
